Tutoring Experience

I have been working as a dedicated IB Physics and Maths tutor for the past seven years, helping students gain mastery in their subjects while building confidence for their exams. From assisting with internal assessments (IA) to guiding students through tough concepts in IB Physics HL and SL, my experience spans multiple curricula, including A-Level and AP.

In addition to tutoring, I've worked closely with students preparing for university entrance exams and projects, including the Math IA and Extended Essays. My approach focuses on ensuring each student has a strong grasp of fundamental principles, enabling them to succeed in their studies and beyond.
