Tutoring Experience

Throughout my career, I have guided students through a range of chemistry curricula, including IB Chemistry (SL/HL), IGCSE, and A-Level. My students come from diverse backgrounds, and many have secured places at top universities globally. My approach focuses on building a strong foundation, enabling students to excel in exams and beyond.

In addition to IB Chemistry, I've worked with students preparing for AP and A-Level exams, offering tailored guidance to ensure their success. With a deep understanding of chemistry, I'm dedicated to helping my students achieve their academic goals and develop a passion for the subject.
