Tutoring Experience

Over my 18 years of tutoring, I've worked with students from various backgrounds, preparing them for demanding IB English exams and coursework. I specialise in helping students build critical reading and writing skills, essential for success in these rigorous programs.

I've also taught A-Level and IGCSE English, ensuring my students develop the analytical skills needed to excel in these courses. I provide tailored support to each student, helping them overcome challenges and build confidence in their writing and comprehension abilities.

Many of my students have gone on to prestigious universities, and I take pride in helping them develop a deep love for English literature and language that serves them well throughout their academic and professional journeys.
