Tutoring Experience

For the past five years, I've worked as an IB History tutor, helping students excel in their studies by offering tailored support for their coursework and exam preparation. I have successfully guided students through the intricacies of both IB and A-Level History, and many of my students have gone on to pursue further studies in the humanities.

I have also taught IGCSE and GCSE History, helping younger students build a solid foundation in the subject. My experience with international students has allowed me to understand diverse learning needs, enabling me to provide focused and relevant guidance for exams and beyond.
